To optimize your boat tour experience, consider the benefits of a private half-day excursion or a full-day group tour, each catering to different preferences.

The private half-day tour offers a more comfortable, albeit shorter, journey, covering the same destinations as the full-day tour but at a faster pace. This option is ideal for those seeking a more efficient yet comprehensive exploration.

On the other hand, the full-day group tour is tailored for enthusiasts who revel in the experience of being on the water for an entire day. With onboard dining available, this tour is perfect for those who cherish a leisurely day-long boat excursion, enjoying the amenities and the extended time spent at sea.
